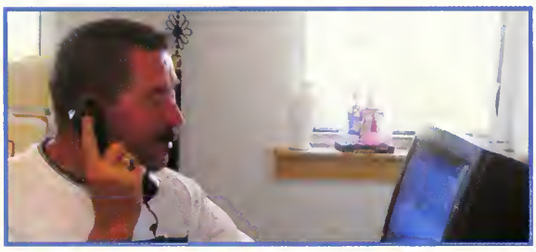
BROOKLINE PUBLIC LIBRARY

DEDICATIONS: Dean Cradle, Mr. Shanahan

Dean Cradle,

Over the decades of your service to Brookline and all of its children, you have earned the respect of your students without asking for it. Your love of knowledge has inspired us and your neve-rending guidance has helped us reach our full potential. We will never forget your helping hand and bright smile. Since 1972, you have provided students with support and encouragement whenever they were needed.

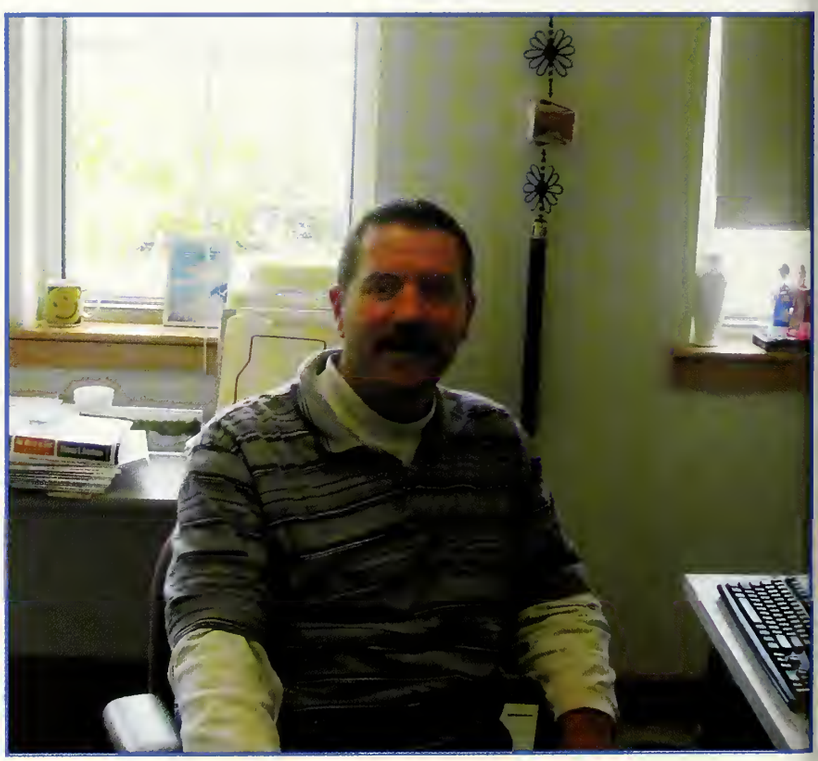
Thank You,
The Senior Class
of 2006



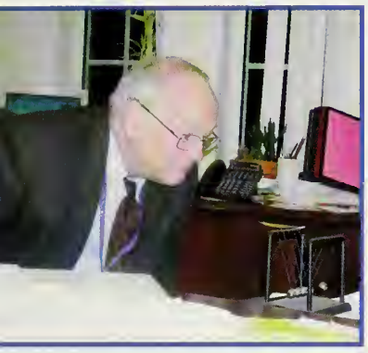
Mr Shanahan,

For the past twenty-six years that you have worked at Brookline High, you have prepared and advised countless students as they strive for success in the future. Your open arms and supportive nature have made the high school a more conforting and secure environment. We also greatly appreciate your endless hours of hard, patient, cold, work coaching hockey.

Thank You,
The Senior Class
of 2006



DEDICATIONS: Mr. Frantz, Ms. Quitt



Mr. Frantz,

Maintaining an environment for teaching and learning is hard work. Your dedication and care have made the high school a smoother functioning, less chaotic, and more humane community. Since 1969, with a brief hiatus, you have improved every program and environment you encountered, from the front lines of education to behind-the-scenes as an administrator. Without you, the operation of Brookline High would implode into oblivion.

Thank You,
The Senior Class
of 2006

Ms. Quitt,

You have imbued your students with your passion for your subject. You have refined and enriched the history program, challenging your students to reach their full potential. During the thirty-seven years that you have been here, we have absorbed your knowledge and life lessons. With your teaching, we step into the world in the hope of changing the future and making a history of our own…

Thank you,
The Senior Class
of 2006

Classic Times

Things That I Remember

sung by Ernie (Steve Whitmire) and Bert (Frank Oz)

"Things that I remember
Safe inside my head
Rubber ducks and pigeons
And the different books we read
You took my favorite pillow
Used my favorite chair
When you're gone I miss you
And I'm happy when you're here
And there's an arm around the shoulder
And a friend I'll always keep
And nights so full of talking
We never fell asleep
under the stars during a camping trip
Each day has its memories
And when the day is through
Things that I remember
Are the things I did with you
Things that I remember
Are the things I did with you ."

FACULTY

Dr. Robert Weintraub
Headmaster

Dear Members of the Class of 2006:

With all due respect, you are a typical Brookline High graduating class. You represent a broad spectrum of the beautiful American quilt -- you are from many nations, speak many languages, and come to us from all socio-economic conditions -- but you are united in your commitment to what is really important at Brookline High -- your intellectual and social development. You are a very high achieving class and you are involved in many many co-curricular activities. Thank you so much for respecting freedom and responsibility so that those who follow you can benefit from our unique school culture.

I will miss you. Please come back and visit and always know that Brookline High is one of your homes.

Dear Class of 2006,

Your teachers have been lucky enough to get to know you in your classes while I've had to learn about you via one-by-one encounters having to do with lockers, IDs, elevator passes, and, of course, the MCAS. I'm reminded of the story about the elephant and the the three blind men. Even so, I've slowly come to know you as an extraordinary class, characterized by wonderful achievements and a joyful spirit.

Ms. Collins, Ms. Delaney, and I have enjoyed helping you along your journey at BHS, and we wish you all the best in the years to come. I've included a nice picture of Arizona, which I visited last year with my wife, because it suggests the vistas and adventures you can anticipate. Have a great graduation and a great life!

Affectionately,

Mr. Frantz

You 're the end of the rainbow, my pot of gold,
You 're daddy 's little girl to have and hold.
A precious gem is what you are,
You 're a bright and shining star.

You 're the spirit of Christmas, my star on the tree,
You 're the Easter bunny to me.
You 're sugar you 're spice, you 're everything nice,
And you 're daddy 's little girl.

You 're the end of the rainbow, my pot of gold,
You 're daddy 's little girl to have and hold.
A precious gem is what you are,
You 're a bright and shining star.

You 're the treasure I cherish so sparkling and bright,
You were touched by the holy and beautiful light.
Like angels that sing, a heavenly thing,
And you 're daddy 's little girl.

Love Always Daddy

Sister,
you 've been on my mind
Sister, we 're two of a kind
So, sister, I'm keepin ' my eye on you.
I betcha think I don 't know nothin '
But singin ' the blues, oh, sister,
Have I got news for you, I'm something,
I hope you think that you 're something too
Scufflin ', I been up that lonesome road
And I seen alot of suns going down
Oh, but trust me,
No-o low life 's gonna run me around.
So let me tell you something Sister,
Remember your name, No twister
Gonna steal your stuff away, my sister,
We sho ' ain 't got a whole lot of time,
So-o-o shake your shimmy Sister,
'Cause honey your 'Lil' Sis ' is feelin ' fine.

Our last child, where has the time gone?

Yesterday a boy, today a young man: a loving member of our family, our sparkling personality and sweet boy, who makes great omelettes, can stay up later than anyone, and greets each day with rare enthusiasm.

You are about to face new challenges and will have opportunities to do great deeds. May you face them with your bright smile and your best effort.

Congratulations and have a great life to Jacob and the BHS Class of 2006!

With love from Mom, Dad, and Matt

CONGRATULATIONS ALISSA!

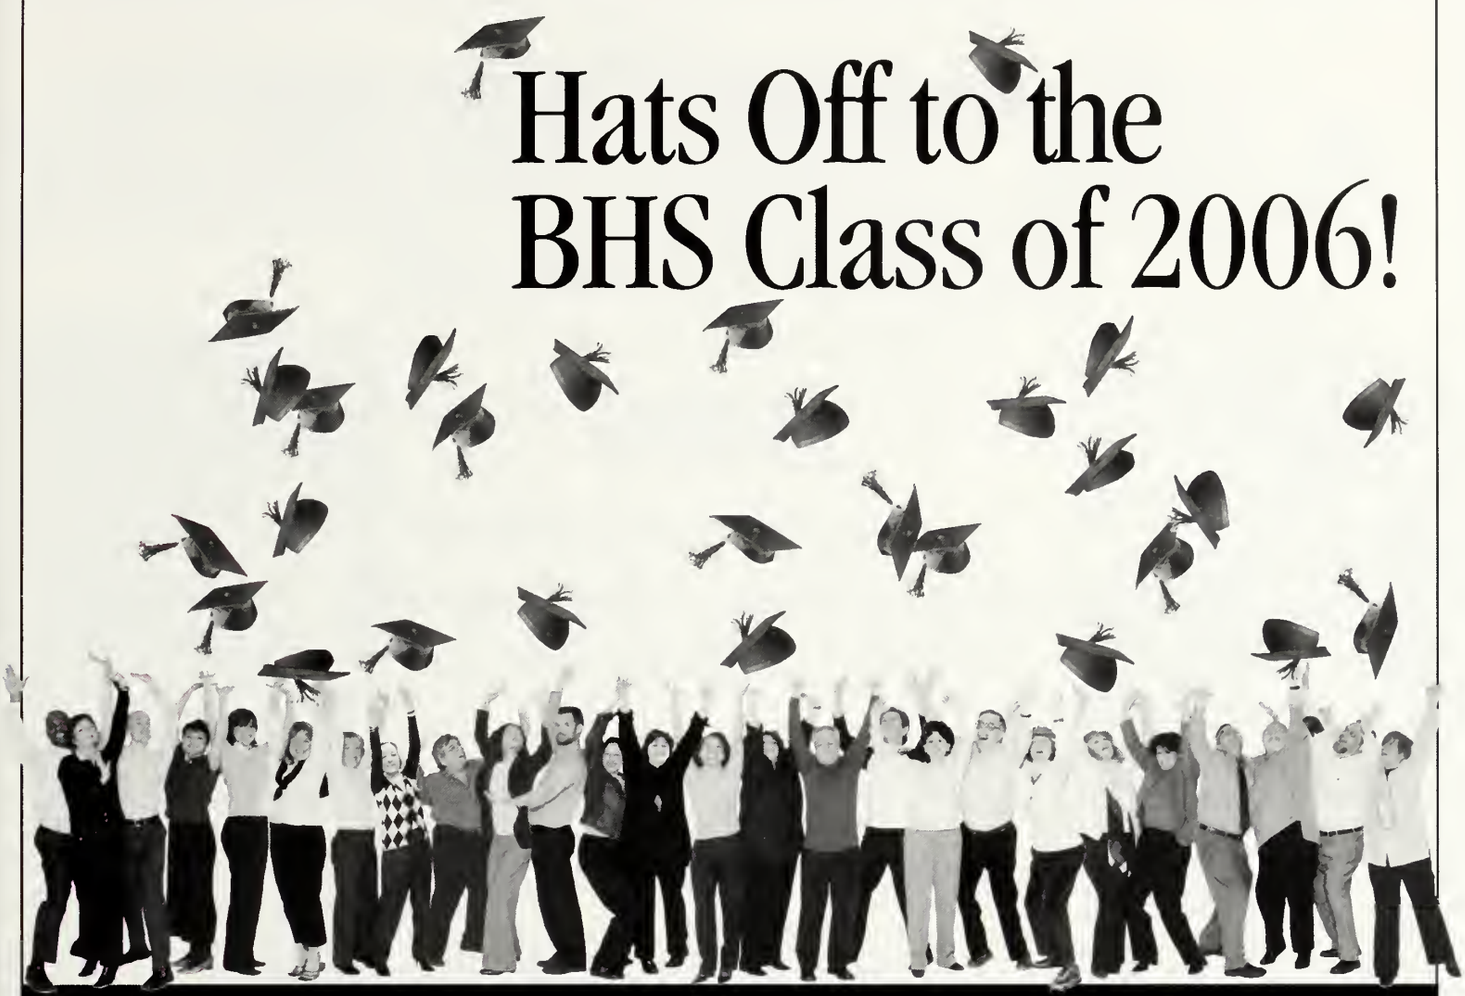
Hats Off to the BHS Class of 2006!



RESIDENT EXPERTS

When you were a child, wearing hats was a way to dress up like your heroes: baseball stars, princesses, police officers and cowboys. Now, as young men and women looking ahead to the adventures that life holds, perhaps you'll try many hats on for size. Whether it be that of a teacher, doctor, dot com entrepreneur, musician, or heir to the family business, we wish for each of you a hat that fits perfectly, one that you can wear with integrity throughout your life.

Hats Off to Sarah Hoy and the Brookline High School graduating class of 2006!

Owen,

Our gentle warrior

Our voice of reason

As you carry on into the future

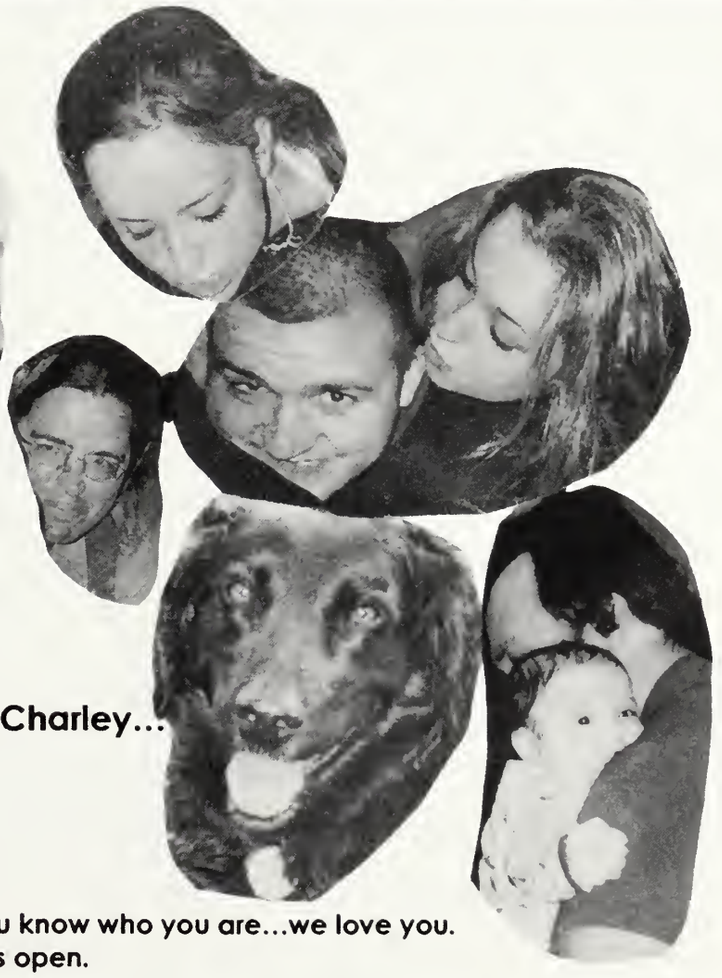
Know that we are surrounding you

With respect, admiration

And most of all

A deep love

Always, Mom, Dad, Jess, Beck and Charley...



To all you boys, who are now young men, you know who you are...we love you.
Our door is always open.

Aknowledgements

Dear Butch,

First off, we would like to say it has been quite the year. We had some good times and then we had some bad times. But with all that said, we really do respect and appreciate everything you have done for us. Thank you for coping with our girly problems and being a good advisor! We really do appreciate all that you have done for us and this yearbook.

Dear Dima,

WE LOVE YOU! You have helped us out so much this year, and we really do appreciate it. You have done more than you were asked to do and you did great work. You were the best techie ever and we can not thank you enough!

The yearbook staff,

It is unimaginable how much time and effort we put into this book of memories. How many OOSA's have we given to each other? How many yearbook crushes have we talked about? How many Simons have came from their mothers? How many old women have we fought with to keep working in this room? How many times have we gotten mad at the computers? How many times have we called the Joster's techies? How many times have we emailed seniors to send their stuff again?How many times have we yelled at Aaron? How many times have we compromised with Butch? How many times have we yelled and screamed at the top of our lungs. How many times have we wished the girls from the last year were here? How many times have we celebrated getting in deadlines and proofs? How many X's have we made in our yearbook ladder? How many times have we been hectic? How many times have we called Village and Boloco? How many pictures have we taken? And finally, how many times have we truly bonded?

The answer: WAY TOO MANY TIMES

Dear Dean Lande,

You have been such a great help since September. You have helped us get pictures, names, and more than we ever asked for. You are greatly appreciated and we love you so much!

Dear Amy Clark,

You have done great things for us this year. We can not thank you enough for all the amazing pictures you have taken. You have been a great friend and you are our favorite person to call any day, any time. Thank you so much!

Dear Gannon and the rest of the techies,

Words can not explain how much we appreciate you guys. You have helped us with everything computer oriented. We have learned so much and we will never forget you guys!

Dear Tara Anderson and Christina Hodges,

We can not thank you enough. We love your patience and your great sense of humor. We will miss the phone calls and the conversations on email, and we will even miss yearbook camp. We love you guys!

To the Class of 2006.

We love you guys so much, and all of your support has really helped us get through this tough year. We did this for you guys, and we couldn't have asked for a better class. Congradulations Class of 2006.
